

KHOR SEE LIN(LLB Hons) Malaya, LLM National University of SingaporePartner, Yeoh Mazlina & Partners, MalaysiaAdvocate & Solicitor, MalaysiaEmail: seelin@ymplaw.com*

Graduated from the University of Malaya, Ms Khor See Lin was admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 2007. Subsequently in 2009, she completed her Masters in Law (Corporate & Financial Services Law) at the National University of Singapore.

See Lin has also obtained the Associate Qualification in Islamic Finance, a certification program accorded Full Accreditation by the Finance Accreditation Agency (FAA). With this qualification, she is able to advise client on banking finance from the Islamic law aspects.

Her main experience includes advising on various corporate and commercial transactions including reviewing, drafting and negotiating the various type of agreements such as sale and purchase agreements, lease agreements, tenancy agreements, heads of agreement, joint venture agreements, shareholders agreements, business sale and purchase agreements, distribution agreements, licensing agreement, merchandise agreements, advisory work on numerous issues in the context of Malaysia law and so on, for local or foreigner clients. She is also the external counsel on retainer basis by many companies.

Notable Experience:

- Prepared, drafted and advised funding agreements for National Film Development Corporation Malaysia in respect of creative industries funds granted.
- Acting as legal counsel in a joint venture project of a mixed development in Kota Bahru for the developer as well as the sale and purchase agreement to the project.
- Acting for a Malaysia public listed company in its disposal of shares in a Chinese company for RMB5 million.
- Acting and advising for a Singapore company on the acquisition of a chain restaurant business in Malaysia worth RM18 million.
- Acting and advising for a local company for the acquisition of a piece of land worth RM21 million.
- Attending to, drafting and advising for client on related agreements in respect of a road construction and tunnel project awarded by state government worth RM6 billion.
- Legal counsel for a Malaysia company proposed undertaking to establish a digital asset exchange in Malaysia as well as for their master development project in Laos.

See Lin is currently the secretary-general for the Malaysia Laos Business Council Organisation.

See Lin can speak and write Mandarin, English, Bahasa Malaysia and Cantonese.